UNRETIREMENT LIVING

More than 30 years of experience have taught us that today's seniors aren't ready to retire to a life of leisure, though they've certainly earned it. They want more choices and are leading a more active lifestyle than generations before. It's no wonder so many of them are flocking to The Fountains at Sea Bluffs in beautiful Dana Point, California. Here, in our luxurious seaside community, we've created an extraordinary place filled with abundant options, including spacious condominiums with one, two, or three bedrooms, to chef-prepared cuisine and a vibrant lifestyle of growth and discovery.

This is a community of friends – brought together by a lifetime of accomplishments and a love of the sea, sun and adventure – to this very special place our residents are proud to call home.

The background is a solid dark blue color. Overlaid on this are several light blue, semi-transparent graphic elements. A large, thin, light blue arc curves across the top half of the image. Below it, there are several thick, light blue, curved lines that sweep across the lower half, creating a sense of movement and depth. The overall aesthetic is clean, modern, and professional.
